The Gospel within the Gospel

The early disciples and followers of Jesus, like our nation's founders, did not all agree on many things. Their conflicts often come to life in the New Testament Epistles. One thing they did agree upon – Jesus is the Son of God, whose death and resurrection, brings about the salvation, for all those who believe. We view Christ through prescription lenses. Our understanding of scripture defines our prescription. No matter what your prescription, it is the same Christ we view.
